

Memorandum of Understanding

A concise record of the parties' current intentions and basis for further cooperation.

This Memorandum of Understanding records the parties' present understanding regarding a potential cooperation or transaction and provides a basis for further discussions.

1 Purpose

The parties intend to explore the proposed cooperation in good faith and to exchange information reasonably necessary to evaluate and develop the opportunity.

2 Cooperation

Each party will determine its own level of participation and will remain responsible for its own costs, personnel, and decisions unless otherwise agreed.

3 Confidentiality

Non-public information exchanged in connection with the discussions will be treated confidentially and used only for evaluating the proposed cooperation.

4 No Commitment

Except for provisions expressly intended to apply immediately, this document reflects current intentions and does not require either party to complete a transaction.

5 Further Agreement

Any binding commercial arrangement will be documented separately and will take effect only when approved and executed by the relevant parties.
