

Referral Agreement

A concise agreement for introductions and business referrals between parties.

This Referral Agreement sets out the basic terms that apply when one party introduces potential clients, customers, or business opportunities to another.

1 Referrals

A referral may be made where the referring party identifies a potential opportunity and provides an introduction with appropriate permission.

2 No Authority

The referring party may not make commitments, warranties, or representations on behalf of the receiving party unless specifically authorized.

3 Referral Compensation

Any referral fee, commission, or other compensation will be payable only in accordance with the commercial terms agreed between the parties.

4 Compliance

Each party will comply with applicable law and will not use misleading, improper, or unlawful methods to obtain or communicate referrals.

5 Termination

Either party may stop participating in the referral arrangement on reasonable notice without affecting any rights already accrued.
